Returns and Refund Policy

Inspiring Melinda / Melinda Riddell does not offer refunds and does not take returns. You make a decision to purchase goods and / or services being offered as you have made the decision to make changes in your life. You are investing in your life by investing in the goods and / or services being offered. To offer refunds and returns is to be offering you a way out. That is not happening. I believe in what I am offering.

At the time of subscribing to Inspiring Melinda certain information such as your name and address will be collected and stored in accordance with the system I am using at that time and into the future to operate and run this website. This is done so that you may be kept up to date with newsletters, articles of interest, offers and other material as and when they become available.

That's it. Short and Sweet.

A brief summary: I don't keep track of your movements on the internet, only on my site to hopefully give you a better experience whilst there, but others might. I only store you name and email address so you can be kept up to date with anything Inspiring Melinda related and I will not be willing sharing this information with others. You do not own anything from Inspiring Melinda unless you have paid for it, it was a free gift or it has been personally given to you by me (Melinda Riddell). You do not have permission to share, copy or modify anything on this site or its materials unless you have been given personal written permission to do so from me. I do not offer or give refunds or returns.
